

PTAsocial

Easy Volunteering for Schools & PTAs

What is it?

PTAsocial is a volunteering website and communication tool for your PTA. It is a private social network, designed to appeal to parents and teachers. You can promote, organise or volunteer for school events and get to know your school community in a safe online environment.

PTAsocial makes it easy to involve busy people, with one-click volunteering from any web or mobile browser. It puts everything in one place for easy access.

Who uses it?

PTA Committees: Publish news about events . Manage your mailing list. Grow your school community online. Get an easy overview of all community activities.

Event Organisers: Update events, define detailed tasks and rotas. Track instant status as volunteers sign up, and assign volunteers too. Send messages to volunteers, grouped by task.

Parents & Volunteers: Browse news about events, RSVP or volunteer with a click! Receive event notification emails. Message other members of your community. .

Why use it?

Schools, PTA committees and school parents told us about barriers to volunteering, such as:

- Lack of knowledge handover from previous organisers
- Stress organising events and chasing volunteers
- Difficulty attending meetings, or finding out what help is needed
- Worry about getting swamped with tasks

PTAsocial addresses these issues to make life easier by:

- Simplifying and providing structure to your communications
- Making it incredibly easy to promote events and publicise what help is needed
- Saving event information for future re-use
- Giving parents opportunities to volunteer for specific tasks easily, anytime, anywhere
- Giving organisers instant status snapshots of who has volunteered for tasks
- SAVING YOU TIME AND HASSLE!

Engaging more parents results in a motivated and thriving community, and more funds raised.
